January 1st gas bills.

It is said that another big election fighting orge was pulled off on the placid Ohio Sunday night above the city and that Maysville sports came home with pockets full of kale; one Portsmouth, Ohio, butcher dropping $500.

Our Semi-Annual Suit SaleNOW IN PROGRESS

The enthusiastic response to this sale proves there are no inducements like style and quality allied to low price. This sale is just under way but long before it is over people will realize it is one of the most momentous trade movement in value-giving that has occurred for a long time. It is scarcely necessary to say the reductions are genuine and accurately stated.

Money never commanded so much value. Do not wait until the assortment is depleted. Come early and get the benefit of the widest possible choice.

The stock is divided into three groups, priced as follows:

$22.50 FOR SUITS UP TO $39.

POOR DOGGIE GOT FATAL DOSE.

The pet poodle of Mrs. Riley Galtner met the fate of nearly all such favorites
Sunday when at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harrison in Commerce St., parents of Mrs. Galtner, doggie got hold of a bone on which poison had been spread for mice. Result: Poodle gone to the happy land of canine; mice still nibbling in the pantry.
Moral: Don't have pet animals—something awful always happens to them.

Secretary Bryan is to speak to the Commercial Club in his home city Tuesday evening. Price is of admission is not stated.—Lexington Leader.

Potatoes are on the free list in the new Tariff-law, yet potatoes are "going up." Now it is announced that the Government authorities will bar out foreign tubers because of the prevalence of blight abroad. Again it is shown that schedules of duties have little to do with the cost of living.—Troy (N. Y.) Times.

THE PEOPLE WILL ATTEND TO IT.

While we all know there is "uncertainty regarding the future" in business lines and commercial affairs, there is one thing, however, that there is no uncertainty about, and that is that the people will promptly attend to that "uncertainty" at the next election. So buckle on your armor, boys. Throw away all petty differences and minor misunderstandings, rally 'round the flag and let every lover of the great and good things brought about by real statesmen of the past select from the common people another man of the Lincoln school and triumphantly place him at the head of the nation.—Morning Star (N. C.) Yellow Jacket.

MARSE HENRY HANDS BRYAN AND WILSON PARTING LICK.

"The Free Silver epidemic in the West and South of the United States came previously near to becoming a Reign of Terror. In Kentucky we had something very like Civil War. Ignorance sat in the saddle and rode down truth. And what a raffish of fake leaders and crazy followers did not the fetish of Free Silver raise up everywhere. Behold the outcome! With Bryan turned gold-bug, and a gold-bug, President in the White House, the country seems safe at least from that form of lunacy, and the very memory begins to vanish like some hideous nightmare. In mad times madmen get to the front. But what a vindication the advocates of sound money have received!"—Henry Watterson's Paris Letter in Sunday's Courier Journal.

THE STAY-AT-HOME HUSBANDS.

In an Ohio city a wife has recently won a divorce because, among other things, hubby, after a hard day's work, wouldn't pilot her to the movies or go out and make calls, but insisted upon donning smoking jacket and slippers and reading the paper as he puffed his pipe and toasted his toes.

Note the words "among other things." Of course it takes more than tiredness or selfishness to legalize a divorce in Ohio. But the other things needn't concern us now. The present point is, was tired hubby's staying at home selfish?

With all due sympathy for a tired man, we guess he must have been guilty as charged. Don't you suppose wife was home all day, as busy at her work as hubby ever was with his? Moreover, her day began ere his did and no whistle ended it at night. With her it was work and drudge day after day with rarely a bit of variety to break the sameness.

Do you wonder, then, that sometimes, in the evening, she wanted a little amusement, wanted to step beyond her own door?

Of course, it's bad never to stay at home nights; but there's danger, also, at the other extreme. Stay-at-home husbands, husbands who never take their wives calling, become stupid, crusty chaps, don't they? For their own good they ought to get out now and then and mix with their neighbors. —Louisville Herald.

SIZE OF BRAIN

No Indication of Its Potency, Says Medical Expert.

Philadelphia.—Dr. E. Linder Mellus, who has experimented for many years at the Johns Hopkins Medical School and elsewhere, told the members of the American Physiological Society, in an annual session here, that the weight of a brain has no relation to its potency, and that the intricate brain convolutions have nothing to do with the power of the brain.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that the latest one-dosed disease, the disease has been able to cure in all its stages, and that Ostarb's. Hall's Ostarb's Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Ostarb's being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Ostarb's is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have a cash fund in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars to anyone that fails to cure. Send for literature.

NEW YEAR MOTTO:

Hope For the Best;
Prepare For The Worst,
And Take What Comes.

HAVE YOU GOT THE PUNCH?

Mary Heaton Vorse, writing a story in the January Woman's Home Companion, makes one of her characters describe as follows a tremendously successful man who is one of the principal figures in the story:

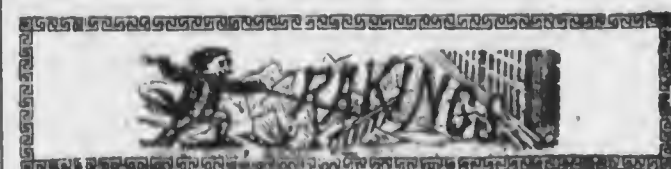

"Look at him now. He isn't a man—he's a force. Men like him are this country—they make it. Everything else is subsidiary. Nothing else counts. They are politics. They are power. They are it. And how am I—how am I going to play in this game? I tell you, I haven't got the punch!"

WHO PAYS THE FREIGHT?

Several year ago, in answer to a correspondent, the Republican stated that the importer paid the duty—that the Tariff was an occupation tax levied on the people of other countries for the privilege of the American markets. Several of the Democratic papers of the State disputed this, but at that time there was no way of settling the matter except theoretically; but now, since the Underwood bill is in effect, it can be demonstrated by cold, hard facts instead of in theory.

Take, for example, cattle—now on the free list. Instead of reducing the cost of living, so far as meats are concerned, they are actually higher than they were under a Protective Tariff; and the cattle dealers of Canada and Argentina are reaping the benefits of being able to enter the American markets without paying a tax for the privilege, while the American grazier is taxed at the same old rate, and, in addition, the expenses of the National Government—now greater than ever before—that were formerly met by the revenues derived from the Tariff, will have to be met by direct taxation, thus throwing an additional burden on our people, for the benefit of those in other countries.

The incapacity of the Democratic party to manage the affairs of the nation was never more clearly demonstrated than by the passage of the Wilson-Simmons-Underwood bill.—Tazewell (Va.) Republican.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

His Big Mistake.

When the cows are in the stable;
When the pigs are in the sty;
You may kiss me if you're able;
If you're not—why you may try.

The apoplectic little man pounded the counter with his apoplectic little fist.

"I never dealt here before and I'll never deal here again!" he shouted. "The management here is rotten. You have nothing, nothing! I'll try once more. Have you any tomatoes?"

"No, sir, sorry, sir," replied the clerk. "What? Not even in cans?"

"Not even in bottles."

The apoplectic little man crushed his hat down further on his head and bit his mustache until the blood came. He consulted the list in his hand.

"I'll give you another chance! Have you any potatoes? Think carefully now!"

"Not a potato in the place," said the clerk apologetically.

"Yo go! Well, I'll give you one more chance. I'd like to see the end of this. Have you any sugar?"

"Not a grain, sir. Sorry, sir."

The apoplectic little man sank down on a stool and let his list flutter to the floor.

"And you call this a grocery store!" he said tauntingly.

"No, sir," corrected the clerk mildly. "This is a cigar store."

The apoplectic little man rolled off the stool in a fit. —Louisville Times.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Maysville People Know How to Save It.

Many Maysville people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Maysville citizen's recommendation.

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third street, Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were weak and the passages of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box and they quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Forest revenues of British Columbia for 1913 amount to $3,000,000, an increase of $400,000 over 1912.

Investigations of a cold storage trust by the Department of Justice have progressed to a point where prosecution will be made, it is stated.

Gov. Yager, of Porto Rico, has asked the Government to break up a combination of sugar buyers in New York, which he says, plans to reduce the price on Porto Rican sugar.

GRANT'S ORDERLY NOW GONE.

Had Three Horses Shot From Under Him at Petersburg.

Capt. William F. Roberts, who served during the Civil War as an orderly under both General Grant and General Meade, died at the Dayton Soldiers' Home Friday. He served as orderly to Gen. Meade during the Gettysburg campaign and was assigned to the same position with Gen. Grant when the latter took command of the Army of the Potomac. He was present at Appomattox as Gen. Grant's orderly. Three horses were shot from under Capt. Roberts at Petersburg and a Bible in his pocket saved his life during the same conflict.

GUARDING THE GIRL.

Protective Rules Issued By English Society For Young Women.

(Collier's Weekly.)

"Fifty thousand girls drop out of sight every year," a famous newspaper announces in huge type. A mere student would ask what percentage this is of all girls between, say, 15 and 20 years, and whether such loss is possible. The article apparently is based on the fact that 600 girls disappeared in 12 months between New York and Chicago. This is bad enough surely. The remedy recommended is to copy after the English association which publishes protective rules beginning as follows:

1. Girls should never speak to strangers, either men or women, in the street, in shops, in stations, in trains, in lonely country roads, or in places of amusement.
2. Girls should never ask the way of any but officials on duty, such as policemen, railway officials or postmen.
3. Girls should never loiter or stand about alone in the street, and if accosted by a stranger (whether man or woman) should walk as quickly as possible to the nearest policeman.
4. Girls should never stay to help a woman who apparently faints at their feet in the street, but should immediately call a policeman to her aid.

Possibly these restrictions are colored by the moral overstrain apt to characterize a reformer's zeal, but it is fair to ask whether a land in which they are necessary is either civilized or Christian. Nothing Bernard Shaw says of English hypocrisy and sensuality is half so striking as this proposal to put everybody in social quarantine. If the facts sustain such contentions, the sooner we have an ironclad etiquette the better. But what a ghastly commentary on our "progress," how our cities sink their pride and become mere traps of lust and death! What is the truth of all this?

PAYING THE PENALTY FOR GRAND-MA'S 18-INCH WAIST.

In the January Woman's Home Companion appears a page of interesting letters from readers on which a Minnesota woman makes the following comment on the present fashions for women.

"There is so much talk nowadays about 'atrocious fashions,' when in reality woman's clothing was never more hygienic and comfortable. The low-heeled shoe, the corsetless figure, the one-piece dress, which requires only a union suit and princess slip beneath it—if we persist in these fashions our grandchildren will reap the benefit. We, who are paying the penalty for grandmother's eighteen-inch waist, ought to rejoice in our freedom and resolve to keep free."

A GOOD FIELD FOR ORGAN AGENTS.
(Vanceburg Sun.)

Down at Muses' Chapel on the historic Quick's Run in this county, they have been experiencing extraordinary hard times in keeping an organist in that congregation. The trouble is that the marriageable young men are levers of ground out music from an organ, and a new organist, as soon as she shows any ability, immediately receives and accepts a matrimonial proposal. Inside of the last three years the organ has been deserted for a man seven times, and now all the old maids in the community are studying and are having sharp competition for the position of church tone feeder for the choir.

BILL TO CHANGE LAW AS TO TEXT BOOKS.

Frankfort.—Text book bills have ever been the signal for a scrap in the Kentucky General Assembly, and the one which will be introduced at this year's session probably will be no exception. Since 1900 the State adoption has been in vogue, the county boards voting and the action of a majority of them settling the question of text books in all the rural schools of the State. The law has been amended, providing for county adoption, but it has never been put in practice, as the last State contract does not expire until this year. A bill will be introduced to change back to the old State adoption system with some modifications, and school men as well as book concerns are showing active interest in the situation.

Counterfeit $10 and $20 Notes Are Warned Against.

Two well-executed counterfeit gold certificates are now making the rounds somewhere in the Southern States. The two notes, one for $10 and the other for $20, have been made by the photo-mechanical process on two thin sheets of paper joined with silken threads between them to give an appearance of genuineness.

SWINDLERS GET $129,000,000

In Mails—Enormous Amount of Money Filched From Unsuspecting Public.

Washington.—The loss of $129,000,000 in two years by the unsuspecting public through swindling operations carried on by the use of the United States mails has stirred the postal authorities to a drastic campaign against fraudulent schemers. Wholesale use of the government's right to deny the mailing privileges to persons or firms whose operations may be tainted with "get-rich-quick" and other false promises, is the weapon to be employed.

An effort to stop this swindling by reliance upon the criminal courts has proved ineffective according to W. H. Lamar, Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department, whose international report was made public.

Mr. Lamar points out that a fraud order immediately cuts off the source of supply of funds upon which the scheme largely depends for its continuance and puts many prospective victims on their guard by reason of the return to them of their letters to such concerns plainly marked "fraudulent" on the envelope.

Postmasters throughout the country the reports says, daily ask for rulings on various lottery schemes which cause the Department no end of worry. Numerous concerns located abroad continue to mail their advertisements of foreign lotteries into the United States. Fraud orders were issued against 74 such firms during the year.

Highly beneficial results have been accomplished, Mr. Lamar says, by the vigorous enforcement of the law against the transmission in the mails of publications and other matter containing obscene and indecent matter. The quantity of such objectionable matter during the past year has been materially reduced.

The business of Louis Martin, Incorporated, one of the most noted restaurants in New York, was placed in the hands of receivers.

WEATHER REPORT

FAIR TODAY AND WEDNESDAY; WARMER.

FIVE DOLLARS A DAY AS MINIMUM WAGE.

Detroit, Mich.—Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, has decided to pay every man over 22 years old in his factories not less than five dollars a day and to provide farm work for them when factory work is slack.

FIVE ARE WHIPPED IN DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del.—With a strong north wind blowing rain on their bare backs, five men, one white, and four negroes, were lashed with the cat-o-nine tails in the workhouse stockade. The whippings were witnessed by 20 citizens, who braved the cold wind bundled up in furs.

FLORIDA ORANGE CROP SUFFERING.

(Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.) Mr. M. Henderson, of Jefferson township, was in town last Saturday and paid this office a call. He says a letter from his brother, who is spending the winter at Port Orange, Florida, states that no rain to speak of has fallen there since last April and leaves on trees are drying up. The orange crop is suffering greatly. Temperature between 60 and 70 in the shade.

FARM AND STOCK NOTES.

Marcus A. Prewitt, of Montgomery County, has purchased from Clark County parties 185 hogs, of good weight, at $6.00 per hundred.

Letton Vimont, of Millersburg bought a young Oakland of Noble bull from the Elmendorf Stock Farm, in Fayette County, this week, at a fancy price. M. C. Sweeney, who resides on the farm of Mrs. T. H. Tarr, near Paris, cultivated 10 acres of tobacco during 1913 that yielded a total of 15,400 lbs. and brought the magnificent sum of $2,071.74, or more than $200 per acre for the land cultivated.

These reports and various other reports were received and by this time the Council Chamber was full of spectators evidently expecting something.

The reading of the minutes proceeded smoothly until it came to the ordinance creating a new fireman. Unanimous was displayed by several of the Councilmen. A call was made for the City Attorney for his interpretation of the legality of the ordinance. The call revealed the fact that the City Attorney was not present, and the Mayor sent a policeman to hunt him up. While the policeman was gone the minutes were put for approval. Here the fun began.

Councilman Crowell and Easton seem to think the ordinance not legal. Yea and Nay vote taken. Those voting Yea: Arn, Everett, Foster, Greenlee, Hendrickson and Keith. Nay: Cullen, Crowell, Easton, Fleming, Gantley and Hunsicker. The Mayor cast the deciding vote in the affirmative. Councilman Easton filed an objection to the minutes as read.

From this on every important measure that came to a vote stood as the first vote, His Honor, the Mayor deciding.

Bonds of different officers read and approved.

Resignation of the Health Board caused the election of a new Health Board, resulting in Messrs. Frank H. Clark, William Derr and Verner Dryden as the new Board.

Councilman Hendrickson brought before the Council the proposition of the Mayville Telephone Company to install a Police alarm and signal system. Motion carried on yea and nay vote.

Mayor deciding. He also said Mayville needed a patrol wagon. Again the motion carried by nay and yea vote. Mayor deciding. Messrs. Hendrickson, Foster and Easton appointed committee to investigate cost of same.

Other minor matters came up and among them which is important was a resolution for a permanent home for the Fire Department. This is to be gone into more fully at the next meeting.

Building permits were granted to the following:

A. C. James to erect a frame shed to his stable on East Fourth street, Fourth Ward.

Central Warehouse Company frame stable on Poplar street.

Mrs. Val Mitchell, one story, three room, frame house on Vine street.

J. C. Simons, one-story frame building, composition roof, 96x208, Third and Vine streets.

LIMELIGHT COUPLE DIVORCED.

Frieda Goelitz O'Connell was granted a divorce from Attorney Robert O'Connell in Cincinnati Monday. It was held that the evidence was conclusive that they were the couple married in this city March 4, 1913, under the names of Robert Koochler and Helen M. Smith. The divorce was granted on the ground that O'Connell had failed to provide for his wife and placed her in a dubious position by denying the marriage.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affords the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad. It is the Sign of the Times.
